

The Indian Express: Annual Business Plan winner announced

Friday, 09 March 2007

QUEEN'S PARK, TORONTO. Project Beyshick, the annual job shadowing program that pairs young people from aboriginal communities throughout Northern Ontario with CEOs from Canada's leading corporations, recently announced its Business Plan contest award worth $15,000 to Darcy Kejick.

Harinder Takhar, Ontario Minister for Small Business and Entrepreneurship was the chief guest for the award presentation event. "The project could not have been possible without the active support and dedication of Aditya Jha, chairman of POA Educational Foundation," he said.

POA Educational Foundation is a charitable foundation that aims to provide support for educational and entrepreneurial initiatives that target regions with specific challenges and pressing needs.
