

Grant Information

The POA Educational Foundation is a charitable but operating foundation with its own initiated projects and is generally not a grant-making organization. We fund selectively some small but related projects. We are not actively seeking grant requests presently.

You might consider contacting local community foundations, service organizations and businesses in your area, or your state department of education, which may provide grants in support of projects of your interests.